

Our mission: To provide quality, live music to the largest possible audience.

Friends of Starlight Concerts, Inc.
P.O. Box 35158
Tulsa, OK 74153-0158
starlightbands@gmail.com

www.starlightbands.net

An Oklahoma Tradition Since 1947

Starlight Band is Oklahoma’s only professional concert band and includes over 50 musicians under the direction of Artistic Director L. Dale Barnett. Rich Fisher, jazz director, leads Starlight’s Jazz Orchestra. This year marks our 70th season!

Programs contain a variety of music, including patriotic, Broadway tunes, pops, big band and jazz, and promise “something for everyone.”

The Friends of Starlight Concerts, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) organization, supported by local corporate sponsors, arts organizations, foundations, and individuals.

Major sponsors: Cedar Creek, Circle Cinema, Creative State, Guthrie Green, Liberty Press, National Endowment for the Arts, Oklahoma Arts Council, Public Radio Tulsa: KWGS/KWTU, Saied Music and the Jimmie & Helen Saied Foundation, Treeman Family Foundation, Universal Combustion Corporation, and the Charles & Marion Weber Foundation.

2016 Free Concerts

Concerts take place at Guthrie Green, 111 E. Brady Street, in Tulsa’s vibrant Brady Arts District.

Concerts begin at 8pm on:

- Tuesday, June 21 Saied Music Company “Americana Night” performed by Starlight Concert Band
- Tuesday, June 28 Charles & Marion Weber Foundation “Fiesta!” performed by the concert band
- Tuesday, July 12 Jazz Orchestra plays “Jazz Under the Stars”
- Tuesday, July 19 Circle Cinema & Cedar Creek “Night at the Movies” performed by the concert band, followed by the film “Sherlock Junior” starring Buster Keaton and accompanied by live theatre organ music
- Tuesday, July 26 Starlight Band plays tunes selected by the musicians for “Band Request Night”
- Friday, August 5 Universal Combustion Corporation “Tribute to Vanguard Jazz Orchestra” performed by Starlight Jazz Orchestra during the First Friday Art Crawl

Admission is free, as is parking. The venue is accessible to those with disabilities. Concessions are available. The public can bring blankets, lawn chairs, picnic dinners, and pet dogs on leashes. Door prizes are given away at each concert.

Tax-deductible donations are accepted at each concert, by mail, or online.

Season Guarantors

